The University of Georgia (UGA) seeks an innovative, collaborative, and creative Graduate Teaching Assistant within the Division of Academic Enhancement (DAE) for the AY. The DAE is a unit of the Office of Instruction. Our mission is to empower all students to achieve success with innovative courses, programs, services, and student-centered initiatives. The DAE supports students as they transition into higher education and sustains their progress through the University’s unique academic environment. We are committed to students, committed to success.

This position begins on Thursday, August 20, 2020 and ends on Monday, May 17, 2021. The primary focus of this graduate teaching assistantship will be teaching UNIV 1201 and serving the mission of the Division as needed. The GTA will receive instructional mentoring from the Assistant Head of Faculty and other DAE faculty and staff.

Information about the UNIV curriculum can be found at our website: https://dae.uga.edu/courses/courses-offered/.

Job Responsibilities

- Participate in UNIV 1201 curriculum planning meetings over summer 2020
- Teach multiple, 2-hour sections of UNIV 1201 (Fall 2020); Spring 2021 teaching assignment forthcoming.
- Attend Division faculty meetings as available.
- Respond directly to students and colleagues in a professional, timely manner.
- Other duties as assigned.

Compensation

Graduate School rate for 20-hour teaching assistantship.

Please Note

- Applicants must have completed GRSC 7770 or departmental equivalent course
- Applicants must be in a Ph.D. program
- Applicants must have teaching experience of undergraduates
- Applicants with a Cognitive Psychology or Higher Education background are preferred
- The DAE does not pay fees associated with any courses you may opt to take during employment; the graduate teaching assistantship does provide tuition waiver.

Application Process

Submit: 1) cover letter; 2) resume; 3) one-page teaching philosophy statement; and, 4) one letter of support/reference as a pdf document via email to nicholas.colvard@uga.edu by 5:00 PM on Tuesday, June 23, 2020. Subject Line: DAE Graduate Teaching Assistant Application